Helps transfer students through the new student process for a seamless transition to Rutgers!

We provide programs in:

- Academics
- Resources
- Making Friends
- Daily life
- Finding balance
You are a transfer student if

- 12 or more college credits at the time of enrollment
Basics for Transfer Credits

• In order to be considered for transfer credit, previous coursework must have been taken at an acceptable accredited institution.

• Maximum of 60 transfer credits from an associate degree granting institution(s) or program(s) (two-year institutions).

• Maximum of 90 transfer credits from a baccalaureate degree granting institution(s) or program(s) (four-year institutions).

• Prior transferable coursework must be completed with a C or above in order to be considered for Rutgers—Camden credits.
Basics for Transfer Credits

• Transfer Evaluations usually sent within 20 business days after a student has been accepted.

• Equivalencies for courses taken at New Jersey Community Colleges are posted on NJTransfer.org.

• Equivalencies from other institutions are determined in a collaborative effort between the Office of New Student Programs and faculty members.

• In some instances, further documentation from a course may be requested in order to determine an equivalency.
Basics for Transfer Credits

- New Jersey State Wide Transfer Agreement (NJSWTA)

- Additional Credit Sources and Prior Learning Assessments are evaluated by ONSP
  - Advanced Placement, CLEP, Dual-Credit, IB, military service and JST

- Importance of updated transcript with Degree Indicator (when applicable)

- Final Transcripts are required to be submitted no later than October 15 (fall admit) Feb 15 (spring admit)
RU Ready? to be a
Rutgers University—
Camden Raptor
Step 1: Accept Admission

- You accept admission to Rutgers University-Camden by confirming your attendance (and sending in deposit) through the enrollment pathway.
  ✓ ugadmissions.rutgers.edu/pathway/

- Suggestion:
  ✓ Make sure your final high school transcripts, any AP scores, or college transcripts for transfer credits are sent to:
    - Rutgers-Camden Admissions, 406 Penn Street, Camden, NJ 08102
Step 2: Create your RU NetID

- Your NetID is important for many reasons!
- Did we tell you that the university only communicates via email? Don’t miss out on important dates and announcements. Check your email daily!

- Parents, we want you to be a partner in this journey! Please discuss information with your student to stay informed!
Step 3: Follow us on Social Media

Step 4: Placement Testing

As a newly admitted student, you are required to take certain Placement Tests in order to progress through the next steps.

Placement Exams

- Assess your mastery of certain basic skills
- Points out your particular strengths and weaknesses
- Assists in designing a program of study for you TAKE Your Placement Tests Early!

- Meet with an academic advisor earlier
- Register for classes earlier than those who wait
- Larger selection of classes from which to choose
- Select classes at times that are more convenient for your schedule
Math – any transfer student who did not successfully transfer in a college-level math (or submit AP results) will be required to take the math placement exam. NOTE: Statistics will not exempt students from taking the math placement exam.

English - Students with a verbal score of 500 or greater, or students with English 101/102 (through AP or college transcript) are exempt from this exam.

English and math exams are taken online and ONSP will reach out with additional instructions.
Step 5: New Student Orientation

Rutgers University–Camden students participate in a mandatory new student orientation program which establishes a foundation for academic rigor and success within our vibrant community.

New students must complete steps in order to move through our process.

New Student Orientation will consist of two mandatory on-campus dates: an Advising & Registration Day and Raptor Welcome. Transfer students will also have to complete online modules.
Step 6: Financial Responsibilities: Term Bill

- Shortly after you attend the Advising & Registration Day, your term bill will generate since you officially registered for courses. You will need to “activate” your term bill to make everything official.

- Your online term bill statement serves as the official term bill of the university. Fall 2017 semester bills are due early August.

- The registration process is not complete until a student either pays the term bill or confirms his or her attendance online (for students who have a zero or credit balance due).
